ANOTHER DERELICT REPORTED DRIFTING ON ROUTE TO CANAL

Mariners navigating vessels bound for the Panama canal are being warned today by Harbormaster Wiffiam R. Foster to keep a sharp watch for a second derelict, the brigantine Lurline, in the track of vessels between the Panama canal and this port.

The Lurline was sighted September by Capt. II. Tominaka of the Japanese freighter Kumi Maru, which arrived here yesterday. It was in latitude 15 degrees, 20 minutes, 40 seconds north, and longtitude 100 de- ment, and will leave for the front at grees, 1 minute, 0 seconds west. The ship was deserted and waterlogged, the first eight months of the war, 23
